Screening of Bhagat Singh biopics to commemorate Martyrs' Day by Films Division

Every year, 23rd March is observed as Martyrs' Day to pay tributes to the freedom fighters who had laid down their lives for independence of India, especially three extraordinary revolutionary freedom fighters - Bhagat Singh, Rajguru and Sukhdev - who were martyred while fighting the imperial British government for freedom of the mother land.

Films Division streamed two films made on great freedom fighter-revolutionary, Shaheed Bhagat Singh on 23rd March, 2021 to mark Martyr's Day. Bhagat Singh (English/1970/ 20 Min/Prem Prakash), a biopic, which traces the life of Bhagat Singh from his childhood, his education in Lahore, his contact with other revolutionaries and the day he went to the gallows with a smiling face. Maha Mrutyunjaya Bhagat Singh (Hindi /2005/21Min/Surindar Sahni) highlights the contribution of Bhagat Singh as one of the most influential revolutionaries of the Indian independence movement. This fictional film attempts to reconstruct historical moments and presents a life sketch of Bhagat Singh and his emergence as a prominent freedom fighter.

The documentaries were streamed on www.filmsdivision.org/ DocumentaryoftheWeek and <https://www.youtube.com/user/FilmsDivision> on 23rd March, 2021. 1521 cineastes enjoyed the films online. The online screening was well covered by print, electronic and social media as annexed.
