Lokmanya Tilak biopic screened by Films Division to mark 165th birth anniversary celebrations

Films Division screened a biographical documentary on 23rd July 2021 to mark the 165th birth anniversary of Lokmanya Bal Gangadhar Tilak, one of the foremost leaders of India's freedom struggle, who ignited patriotic consciousness among the masses with his famous slogan, "Swaraj is my birthright, and I shall have it".

The film Lokmanya Tilak (22 Min/ Eng/1957/ Vishram Bedekar) is an experiment in screen biography which brings to life, without the medium of a living character, the dramatic achievements when Lokmanya Tilak dominated the socio-political scene by his austere example and relentless struggle against the colonial rule. The film also offers a peep into other sides of the great leader's myriad personality as a scholar, educationist, mathematician and philosopher.

The biopic was streamed on <https://filmsdivision.org/> 'Documentary of the Week' and <https://www.youtube.com/user/FilmsDivision>. 774 cineastes enjoyed the films online. The streaming was well covered by print, electronic and social media as annexed.
